

DEPARTMENT OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT

Department of Rural Development was established in academic year 1997-98, is offered as an optional subject at first year, second year & third year B.A. level. The Department also offers remedial course in Rural Development as well as a Certificate Course in Rural Development for understanding the concept of Rural Development & self-help group. Student learns importance of women empowerment in Rural Development. For all round development of the learner department conduct various activity like presentation, Debate competition etc. To understand the real scenario of rural area every year department arranges visits to various villages, Agro-Tourism Center, NGOs. Faculty of department is actively involved in activities such as Avishkar Research Convention and subject oriented survey projects for N.S.S. to promote research aptitude among the learners.